"A little bit of everything I am, I wouldn't like to define" – Klaus Nomi The GfE is an annual festival of GIFs curated by Mode. The Event Information. Every year in May, the GfE festival of GIFs explores the GIF's history as well as the evolution of the genre and the artists who have shaped it. The festival seeks to showcase the many ways in which GIFs are used, and the ways they have been used in the past and present. It looks at GIFs' multitude of applications in art and new media, alongside gifs' many uses in music. We hope to kick-start a conversation about the surprising history, present and future of the GIF. We encourage attendees to bring cameras that can capture GIFs along with their phones to create GIFs using the official GfE app. Where and how is the GfE?
