Creating Brushes in Photoshop Photoshop Brushes You can create brushes using the Photoshop Brush Tool in the Tools panel, the Brush icon on the Edit tab, or by right-clicking on the Canvas and choosing Brush from the menu. Photoshop offers a great variety of brushes—think of them as the brush set used by the large majority of Photoshop users. The following sections take a closer look at the differences between these tools and how you can use them to create your own brushes. The Brush Tool The default brush shape in Photoshop is the 2-pixel-wide Brush Tool, Figure 2-1. Figure 2-1: Photoshop's Brush Tool, the Default Brush, is perfect for painting with. In addition to drawing freehand with the Brush Tool, you can use the Stroke dialog box (Ctrl+U), shown in Figure 2-2, to create a new brush. You can select a specific type of brush (Stroke, Fade, or Gradient) or create a custom brush by typing in a specific list of types of strokes that Photoshop will later include in the stroke you select. Figure 2-2: The Stroke dialog box is where you can customize the types of strokes Photoshop can put in your new brush. The best way to create brushes is to paint a picture by hand. This creates brushes that are unique and effective. A simple way to create a new brush is to make a simple shape and size it. Use a soft-edged brush to paint, carefully pulling back as you paint so that your strokes are soft, and not hard or "stiff." Some more advanced brushstrokes, effects, and techniques are available in the following sections. Creating a custom brush Creating custom brushes that include special tools or special settings that are not included by default in the Photoshop brush sets is now easy. You can quickly add special effects such as a soft-edged brushstroke, a blur, or a sparkle. Photoshop includes a large number of special brushes, as shown in Table 2-1. Table 2-1: Special Photoshop brushes Description | Brush --- | --- In addition to adding filters or special effects, you can add shortcuts to Photoshop commands. | Special Dynamic Custom Brush Add Strokes and a Stroke Amount | Stroke Style Add an Angle | Basket Weave

, will that be a problem for you?" "No,no,no,no." "You sure?" "Yeah, cause we got to get this thing approved by, uh,we got to get this thing approved by down... by the director." "Hightower." "Okay,you bet." "Okay,trust me." "Hightower." "Yeah,yeah,I'm sure he'll call before 10:00." "Thanks." "I'll call him before 10:00." "I'm sure he'll call before 10:00." "Right." "Okay." "Okay." "Bye." "Okay,I need a list of everybody you know in government-- just everybody." "All right." "Um,the attorney general,the deputy attorney general,the under secretary of law and justice, the director of national intelligence, the secretary of state,all of them." "Uh,the office of the director of national intelligence is on the seventh floor." "You're late." "You know, we had a plan." "We had a plan." "We had a plan." "You had a plan." "You knew the plan." "We were supposed to meet at the-- yeah." "So,it's not like I just forgot." "I..." "I'm sorry." "I'm just having a problem getting used to the lockers." "Actually,you're late." "I know." "I'm sorry." "It's just that,uh,the other night, I got..." "Uh-oh." "Alcohol will do that to you." "I'm just" " I'm just a little discombobulated is all." "Well,it's okay." "It's a good thing,you know?" "What-- you don't know what a discombobulated is,do you?" "It's something to do with eros, I think." "I'm sure it is." "Eros?" "A discombobulated is somebody who's probably taken too much pleasure in one position to the point of being,uh-- to the point of being,what?" "He just doesn't know." "What's going on with you?" "Sorry." "The lockers." "Yeah,the lockers are next to the showers." "You know,that's why I have this problem." "I'm always in the shower or the locker room." "I mean,that's why I like the government." "You
