Audio Enhancer Plus 5.1 & 7.1 Surround Sound Crack.. A powerful audio software for your Windows PC.Q: Java MVC 3 and Entity Framework 4 Model I currently have a working project that uses Oracle 11g with JDeveloper 10.0.2.1 and I am using Entity Framework 4 as my DAL. I would like to use MVC 3/4 and NHibernate but I am at a loss as to how to get my existing project to be "MVC compatible." I have an edmx file that I use to generate my classes and save them in a folder structure like "Model" and "Model.edmx" but if I try to add a web.config entry for "Model.edmx" my applicaiton builds and runs fine but when I attempt to add a View in Visual Studio I get the following error when it tries to build the project: CS0246: The type or namespace name 'Model' could not be found (are you missing a using directive or an assembly reference?) If I put any of the generated Model code into the view and try to run it I get the following error in the browser: Object reference not set to an instance of an object. Description: An unhandled exception occurred during the execution of the current web request. Please review the stack trace for more information about the error and where it originated in the code. Exception Details: System.NullReferenceException: Object reference not set to an instance of an object. Source Error: An unhandled exception was generated during the execution of the current web request. Information regarding the origin and location of the exception can be identified using the exception stack trace below.
