Latest Bollywood Movie Hd 1080p. Latest.Q: Remove Facebook, Google and Twitter buttons I'm trying to use this code to remove facebook, google and twitter buttons from my page. The code actually works, but when I click on the "click to share" links on the buttons, they go to facebook, google and twitter with no problem, but they don't disappear from the web page. Is there any way to remove the buttons without losing the clickable links? ... A: Have you tried removing the sharer parameter from the data-* attributes? You can have them go to Facebook, Twitter, Google + or nothing. If you want them to go nowhere, you can use _blank. Thursday, October 14, 2005 You take things for granted "You take things for granted." That's the gift of being human. It's the blessing of being born into the world. We all take things for granted. Things like our health, our homes, our cars, our homes, our cars, our homes, we take them for granted. But without the things we take for granted (like people, cars, homes and medicine) we wouldn't be here today. You can't take anything
