Michael Jackson Bad Album Zip Download

his monster dance pop smashes, jazz-funk grooves, and otherworldly vocal experiments have never been captured in such a raw and unvarnished manner, as they are in the bad album. the album is arguably the biggest and most groundbreaking hit of the jacksons career. even before its release, the album had set a gold record for selling more than one million copies. the track out of control, featuring the vocals of aerosmiths frontman steven tyler, topped the charts in the us, becoming the first non-dance record to do so. the album hit number one on the charts in the uk and australia, while leading the charts in the us for three consecutive weeks. it was certified 5x platinum in the us and eventually sold 20 million copies worldwide, and a total of 20 million singles were sold. the album has been certified diamond in the uk, which is the highest such certification in the united states. there is something deep and instinctual about jacksons music that has led to its success. while jackson has cited chuck berry as his biggest influence, his overwhelming genius has also led to comparisons to other musical greats, such as prince, the beatles, and stevie wonder. jackson was a child prodigy, who came to the fore at age four in the early sixties, when he starred as michael in the donna tv show, and he picked up his first guitar at age six, while learning to play by ear. he performed on the ed sullivan show at age seven, and was later signed to motown records, at the age of nine, at a time when he was a star in the jackie chan adventures tv show. 5ec8ef588b
