June 19, 2019 - Bugreporter: Opening/Changing Script in Code Editor Prevents Error... ToggleGroups loses correct selection when reactivated. We have a bug report in the Bugreporter log regarding opening in the code editor. I can see it happening, but this message also happens when I open it in the code editor with any method other than ToggleGroups. I don't have this problem using ToggleGroups so I don't know if this is a bug. If you open ToggleGroups and then change the value in the code editor that you want to change, it will be saved when you open the code editor for the first time.
